Free Webinars – Law School Admission

Here are links to a number of recently offered webinars that may be of interest to those who are exploring or planning for law school (freshmen through seniors and beyond). There is no cost to view any of these webinars and each may be viewed at any time:

- Reinventing Law: How Legal Employment is Being Transformed and What the Future of Law Looks Like
- Crafting Your Law School Personal Statement
- Cracking the LSAT: a Guide to Preparing for the Law School Admission Test.

In the coming weeks there will be a number of additional webinars featuring comments delivered by experts in their fields, including current and former pre-law advisors and the vice president of the National Association of Law Placement:

- October 29, 7:30 p.m.: Tips for Strengthening Your Law School Admissions Application
- November 6, 7:30 p.m.: Career Options and Market Outlook
- December 11, 7:30 p.m.: Expert Advice for Writing Your Law School Personal Statement

Languages Work!

Consider attending “Using your language skills to get ahead after college” on Friday, November 1, 1:30-4:00, in 303 International Center. Do you love learning languages? Have you wondered how to use language skills in your career? Learn about careers in language, get insider information, and make connections with professionals who are MSU alumni! Alumni panelists include:

- Kelsey Holsinger, State Family Services Coordinator, Telamon Corporation
- Tom Mitchell, President, Messe Dusseldorf North America
- Fathy Shetiah, Owner, 7C Lingo, Language Services and Cultural Intelligence
- Ryan Waldron, Office Manager, French American Chamber of Commerce, Chicago Chapter
- Rhea Young, Cultural Affairs & JET Program Coordinator at Consulate General of Japan

RSVP Required: Visit careernetwork.msu.edu and login to MySpartanCareer; Click on the Events tab > click the Workshops tab > keyword: language. Questions? Email brewerre@msu.edu
“Take it to the Streets” November 9th

MSU is sponsoring Take it to the Streets/Spartan Day of Service on Saturday, November 9 from 8am-2pm. The last Day of Service event had over 500 participants and organizers anticipate MANY MORE this year. This is part of who we are as Spartans, giving back to the community, working alongside agencies that need and want our service. Bring a partner and sign up at www.servicelearning.msu.edu by November 1st. All students, staff and faculty are welcome to participate. Contact Carlos Fuentes at fuentes@msu.edu with questions. This event is sponsored by Residence Education and Housing Services, Center for Service-Learning and Civic Engagement, on the Rise, and Office of Cultural and Academic Transitions.

Peace Corps – Upcoming Events

Come learn about exciting opportunities in agriculture, education, environment, health, business and youth development in over 65 countries around the world! MSU campus recruiters will provide an overview of Peace Corps, including the application process, benefits of service and how to become a more competitive candidate.

- Tuesday, November 5th: Careers in Service Panel-Peace Corps, City Year and Teach for America at 6pm, Club Spartan/Case Hall
- Tuesday, December 11th: General Information Session at 6pm, 204 International Center

Or, visit the Peace Corps office in 202 International Center. Fall 2013 office hours are Wednesday: 1:00-5:00pm, Thursday: 9:00am-12:00pm, or by appointment. Phone: 517-432-7474 | Email: msupeace@msu.edu | Facebook: Peace Corps at Michigan State University | Twitter: @PeaceCorpsatMSU

Career Opportunity for seniors in Social Science

Want to make a positive difference in the life of another person? Teaching positions are available working with persons with autism and other developmental disorders (teaching certification not required). The New England Center for Children is looking to recruit MSU Social Science graduates for careers with their organization. Learn about available positions and their benefit package, which includes on-site graduate degree programs. Seniors, regardless of graduation date, are encouraged to attend.

THE NEW ENGLAND CENTER FOR CHILDREN INFORMATION SESSION will be Tuesday, November 5, 6:30pm, in 107 Berkey. Bring a copy of your resume with you for an opportunity to participate in an on-campus interview on Wednesday, November 6.
Career Opportunity, continued

To learn more about The New England Center for Children, visit them on the web at http://www.necc.org

Questions? Contact Kristi Coleman, Career Services Network, at colem239@msu.edu

Masters in MSU’s Human Resources and Labor Relations

The School of Human Resources and Labor Relations (HRLR) at MSU will be holding an Open House on Sunday, Nov. 10, from 1-3:30pm, in 112 Bessey Hall. Learn about the highly regarded graduate program, meet current students and faculty, and find out why this could be the right school for you. Questions? Visit their website at hrlr.msu.edu or email hrlrrecruiting@outlook.com.

11th Annual Women’s Leadership Conference

The 11th annual MSU Women's Leadership Conference will take place on Sunday, November 10, from 12:00 noon until 6:30pm, in the MSU Union Ballroom (2nd floor). Online registration is now open at http://wrc.msu.edu. The fee for students is $20 per person.