Mid-Semester Deadline

Wednesday, Oct. 17, at 8:00 p.m. is the middle of the semester, which is the last day to drop a course with no grade reported for most fall semester courses. Only courses with non-standard meeting dates may be different, and are indicated in the web schedule of courses (http://schedule.msu.edu/), if you click on the course section number.

Please check with your instructor or advisor if you have any questions about this. There are no drops allowed after this date.

MSU’s 2012 Housing Fair

Brought to you by the Department of Student Life, with support from the State News and the Community Relations Coalition, this event will take place Wednesday October 17th from 12:00 pm to 5:00 pm on the 2nd floor of the Student Union. Representatives from the Residence Halls, apartments, houses and co-ops from the local area will be in attendance.

You cannot sign a lease at the fair but you can get answers to questions like these:

- How will my financial aid work if I move off campus?
- Where can I get the best service and deal?
- What should I know about signing a lease?
- How far away from campus is too far away?
- How does parking and transportation work?

You can learn about renting, legal resources, and more! For more information about the Housing Fair, contact the Department of Student Life by email at stulife@msu.edu or visit their website at www.studentlife.msu.edu. Student Speaker Needed for Women’s Leadership Conference – apply by October 19

Please help spread the word to any women student leaders you know! The MSU Women’s Leadership Conference is looking for a junior, senior or graduate student to deliver an address during the closing session of the 10th annual MSU Women’s Leadership Conference on Sunday, November 18, 2012. The student speaker will be asked to deliver a motivational speech that relates to this year’s theme, "Attitude Is Everything - Lead With It!"

They are looking for a MSU student who has demonstrated great leadership skills both on and off campus and has been successful in her academic endeavors as well. She also needs to be able to speak to a large group and present with humor and style.

An application is required. The deadline is 5:00pm on Friday, October 19, 2012. Questions, please contact Krystall Jones and Briaa Robinson at womenleadersmsu@gmail.com.
