Learn about the Civil War Summer 2013 – Study Away Meeting October 2

Earn ISS and HST credit US13 while learning about the Civil War. Based in Washington, DC this program provides students with an opportunity to see where battles were fought and history was made. The Civil War Study Program is a must for students interested in this significant period in American history. To learn more, come to an informational meeting Tuesday, October 2, 2012 at 5:00 pm in 218B Berkey Hall.

For more information, visit:

Calling All Pre-med Students! Med School Info Day October 6 and Application Help

INFORMATION DAY - Premed students have an opportunity to meet deans and admission directors from all six Michigan medical schools in one place on Michigan State University’s campus from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Oct. 6.

“Great Lakes, Great State, Great Medicine” is a conference designed for college sophomores and juniors. Students with active applications to medical schools, however, are not eligible.

The conference will feature presentations on a range of topics, including advice for successful admissions applications and interviews; tips for acing the MCAT; and information on osteopathic, allopathic and nontraditional career opportunities.

Medical schools participating include the MSU College of Osteopathic Medicine, the MSU College of Human Medicine, Central Michigan University College of Medicine, Oakland University William Beaumont School of Medicine, the University of Michigan Medical School and the Wayne State University School of Medicine.

continued
Online registration is required, and includes a $25 nonrefundable fee through PayPal. To register and for more information, visit www.greatlakesmedicine.org.

MEDICAL AND DENTAL SCHOOL APPLICATION HELP - These sessions are intended for juniors and seniors preparing to apply to health professional schools, and will go over different topics, so ideally students will want to attend one of each session.

The College of Natural Science pre-professional advisors will be giving four seminars on two different days about medical and dental school applications. The two Part 1 sessions will be on Tuesday, October 16 at 3:30pm in 105 Natural Science Building and 5:30pm in 116 Natural Science Building. The two Part 2 sessions will be on Wednesday, October 24, at 3:30pm in 105 Natural Science Building and 5:30pm in 116 Natural Science Building.

---

Mock Career Fair October 2

All students are invited to join the Women in Business Students’ Association (WBSA) at the Mock Career Fair on October 2, 2012 in the MSU Union Ballroom 2nd floor at 6:00pm. First floor of the MSU Union is under construction, but the second floor is fully operational. The Mock Career Fair imitates the actual Career Gallery (scheduled for October 4) to provide students with the opportunity to gain feedback from real recruiters, network with Fortune 500 companies, and work through the anxiety that is prone to happen before a big interview. Among the companies attending are Altria, Target, Conoco, Union Pacific, Enterprise, Kohls, and General Motors.

---

Cognitive Science Specialization

Announcing the new Cognitive Science Specialization, administered by the College of Arts and Letters and the Department of Linguistics and Germanic, Slavic, Asian and African Languages.

Cognitive science is directed toward understanding the nature of mind, whether mind be embodied in the biological stuff of neurons in a brain, or in the silicon stuff of computer chips in an artificial brain-like system.

Approved courses are from the following departments: CSD, CSE, LIN, PHL, PSY and ZOL. Flyers on the program will be sent to these departments. More information can be found at http://cogsci.msu.edu/index.html. Make an appointment with your IDS advisor to see how this specialization might fit into your academic program and career goals.
Law School Applications and Admissions Information Session October 19

Students of all majors are invited to attend Strengthening Your Law School Application Package: An Insight Into Admissions.

Presentations include how to write a personal statement and resume; obtaining letters of recommendation; where to apply to law school; supplemental statements; character and fitness evaluations; wait lists; early decision and more. Free Jimmy Johns Lunch!

Friday, October 19th from 12-1:30 PM, MSU College of Law, Room 476

Presenters are Chuck Roboski, Dean of Admissions, MSU College of Law, Brian Egan, Political Science, Jaimie Hutchison, James Madison College and a few other experts from MSU’s College of Law.

RSVP is required. Login to MySpartanCareer.com, click on the events tab and then workshops tab, RSVP.

Mid-Semester Deadline Approaching

The Registrar’s Office Calendar indicates that the middle of the semester is on October 17. This is the last day to drop a course with no grade reported, and also the last date for an instructor to turn in a final grade for work that was marked incomplete from the previous semester.

Deadline to drop a course with no grade reported and to finalize an incomplete is Oct. 17.