IDS Update

Summer Internships across the U.S.A.

Are you thinking that you’d like a great summer experience and something substantial to put on your resume? Come to a meeting Tuesday, September 25, 2012 at 5:00 pm in 318 Berkey Hall to learn how you can earn MSU credit while gaining marketable skills in one of America’s most culturally rich and exciting cities, including Boston, Honolulu, New York, San Francisco and Washington, D.C.

Visit this website for more information: http://msustudyprograms.wordpress.com.

Study Away in Hawaii US13

How about spending this summer in Hawaii? Choose between a study program focused on serving a uniquely diverse population and an internship experience in a wide variety of settings from health care to youth programming. To learn more, come to an informational meeting Wednesday, September 26, 2012 at 6:00 pm in 207 Berkey Hall. Visit this website for more information: http://msustudyprograms.wordpress.com.

Study Abroad Fair

A reminder that the Study Abroad Fair is this Thursday, September 27, noon-6pm in the Breslin Center. Check out all the programs and destinations that are available. Talk to your IDS advisor to see how it can fit into your degree program.
Latinas interested in graduate school

Undergraduate Latina students interested in applying to graduate school may want to attend a presentation on Wednesday, September 26, at noon, in 200 S. Kedzie Hall. For information, please visit: http://www.msu.edu/~cls.

Community Walk set for Sunday, Sept. 30

East Lansing Out of the Darkness Community Walk (5K) is Sunday, September 30, 2012, at 11:30am at East Neighborhood Courtyard behind Hubbard Hall. Register and donate online by Friday, September 28th at www.outofthedarkness.org. Same day on-site registration and check-in is between 10:30-11:30am.

Additional Information for the walk can be found at http://www.counseling.msu.edu/feature/walk-prevent-suicide-fall. Donations will be accepted until December 31st, 2012.

HALE Graduate Program Info Day is Oct. 5

11th Annual Higher, Adult, and Lifelong Education (HALE) Program Information Day is Friday, October 5th, 2012, morning and early afternoon in 252 Erickson Hall. This information day provides an opportunity for interested individuals to learn about careers in Student Affairs and Higher Education Administration, to gain insights regarding the HALE programs and curriculum requirements, and to understand the application process for the HALE doctoral, master's, and graduate certificate programs.

Attendees will have an opportunity to interact with HALE faculty and students in discussion sessions related to each of the particular degree programs. Click here to RSVP for the event by Friday, September 28, 2012.

For more information about Program Information Day or the graduate programs in HALE, please contact haleadm@msu.edu or 517-353-5187.

Interested in health-related research?

REPID (Research Education Program to Increase Diversity in Health Researchers) is recruiting interested students to be considered for scholarships, between now and Oct. 15. Please visit this web site for information: http://www.repid.msu.edu.